Porter Keadle Moore, LLP Partner Appointed to Task Force

Banking Specialist Provides Expertise to National Accounting Organization

January 27, 2003 – Atlanta, GA - Porter Keadle Moore, LLP (PKM), a full-service accounting and consulting firm and recognized leader in the community banking industry, is pleased to announce that, Partner, Sal Inserra, has been appointed to serve on the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council (FFIEC) Regulatory Task Force for the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA).

“I’m honored to have been appointed to this task force,” said Inserra. “As a partner on the firm’s financial institution team and having devoted nearly my entire career to the banking industry, I hope to be a valuable contributor to this group.”

As a member of the FFIEC Regulatory Task Force, Inserra and fellow committee members will work with regulatory agencies in the banking, savings institution and credit union industries to advocate the CPA profession’s views and to provide technical counsel to ensure concepts are consistent and workable under professional standards set in the private sector.
