Porter Keadle Moore, LLP Partner Appointed to Executive Board

Deborah Sessions Named to Board of Directors of Possible Woman Foundation International

February 26, 2003 – Atlanta, GA - Porter Keadle Moore, LLP (PKM), a full-service accounting and consulting firm and recognized leader in the community banking industry, announces the appointment of Deborah Sessions to the Board of Directors of the Possible Woman Foundation International (PWFII). The PWFII is a new non-profit organization dedicated to promoting the education of women and improving the lives of women and girls in need, locally and globally.

Sessions, a graduate of Mercer University in Atlanta, was selected to oversee PWFII's scholarship funds as a result of her professional achievements as well as her dedication to women's issues and charitable involvement within the Atlanta community.

"A key component to the foundation is a scholarship fund, which provides educational grants to financially disadvantaged women and girls," said Sessions. "I'm honored not only to oversee this critical function, but also to have been chosen as one of 23 Atlanta businesswomen to head up this remarkable organization."
