Porter Keadle Moore, LLP Managing Partner Elected to PKF North American Network Board of Directors

January 5, 2004 – Atlanta, GA - Porter Keadle Moore, LLP (PKM), a full-service accounting and consulting firm, is pleased to announce that Managing Partner, Phil Moore, has been selected to serve on PKF North American Network's Board of Directors. During his three-year term, Moore will represent PKM and nearly 90 other member firms throughout the United States in the day-to-day operation of this accounting association.

"I've been an active member of PKF since our firm joined the association nearly seven years ago," said Moore. "Throughout my years with the organization, I've seen it grow to become one of the most reputable associations in the accounting industry. I look forward to being an integral part of its continued success."

"We rely on the talented leaders on our board for direction and vision as we strive to capitalize on our association's strong national and global position," said Rudolf Beilfuss, president of PKF North American Network. "The 2002 and 2003 boards of directors were responsible for successfully forging our international affiliation with PKF International, and our new board will continue to reinforce this relationship, boost the value of membership and enhance our worldwide impact."
