Two Porter Keadle Moore, LLP Partners Appointed to National Accounting Association Committees

January 3, 2005 – Atlanta, GA - Porter Keadle Moore, LLP (PKM), a full-service accounting and consulting firm, is pleased to announce that two of its partners have been appointed to serve on PKF North American Network committees. Tim Keadle will serve as Chairman of the national accounting association's Financial Institutions Committee for a second term. Sal Inserra will serve on the association's 2005 Sarbanes-Oxley Task Force.

"Many of PKF North American Network's member firms have developed strong financial institution niches," said Tim Keadle. "I'm proud that I am able to help the association by spearheading its efforts to provide a forum for exchanging best practices among those of us that focus on the banking industry."

"As one of the top firms in the nation to serve public companies, our firm must stay at the forefront of Sarbanes-Oxley regulations," said Sal Inserra. "Serving on the PKF North American Network Sarbanes-Oxley task force is a privilege and a natural expansion of our firm's expertise. We expect our participation will provide our firm with valuable information and access to additional resources."
